

Self-Portraits

Trying to take a selfie in 1646

What is the importance of a portrait? Why do we have them?

Mona Lisa by Leonardo Di Vinci

Girl With The Pearl Earring by Johannes Vermeer

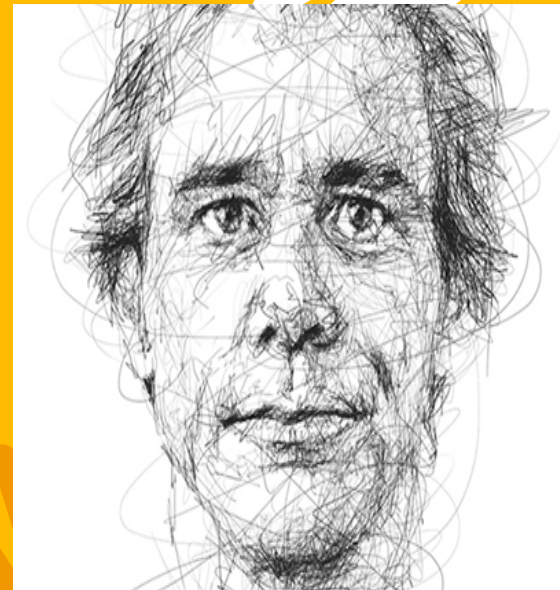

American Gothic by Grant Wood

Lawdy Mama by Barkley L. Hendricks

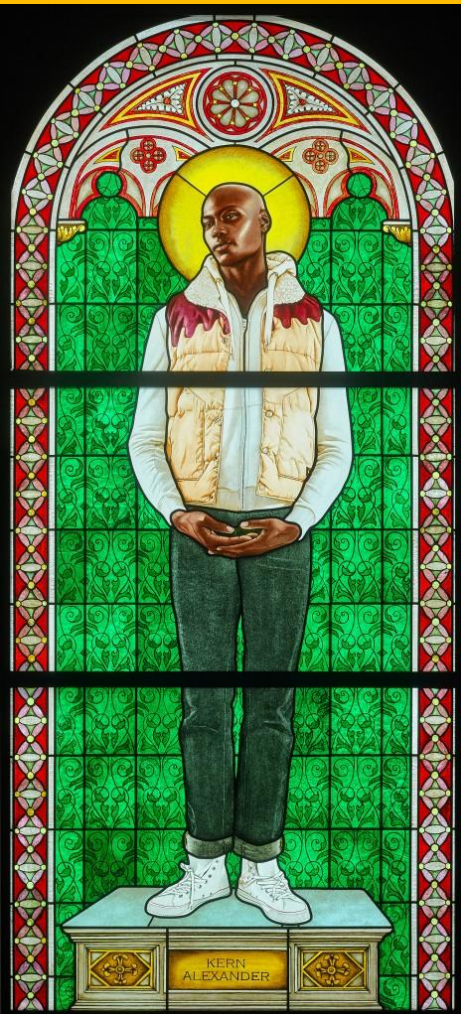

Marilyn Monroe by Andy Warhol

Jim Carrey by Vince Low

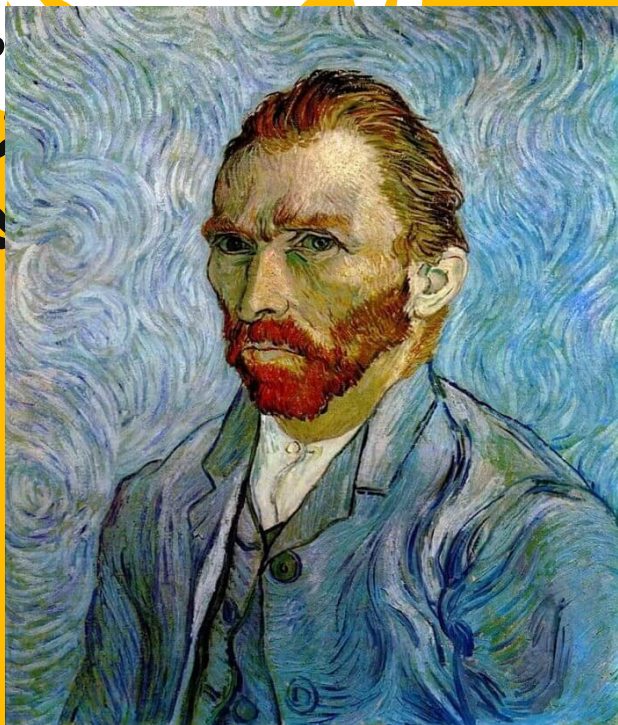

Kehinde Wiley

What is a self-portrait? How can it tell a story?

Vincent Van Gogh Self Portraits

Frida Kahlo Self Portraits

Requirements

Must have 2-4 things in your self portrait that tells us about you and your culture. This can be something you are wearing or an object in the background. For example, dance shoes, your country flag, something that represent yours family.

Must be done on 9x12 paper. It can be done with charcoal, color pencils, pastels, or graphite.

Must be a drawing of you. Thing about who you are as a person, what are something that can be incorporated into the self portrait that represents your culture? It can also be a drawing of you you want to be.

Timeline

April 19th

April 21

April 26th

April 30th

Complete the google form that is on google classroom under the portraits project. This needs to be completed by the end of class.

How to draw a face tips and tricks.

Start final project on final paper. The project needs to be completed on a 9x12 paper.

The project is due. Please submit the project on google classroom and complete the reflection sheet.

References

Vince Low- <https://vincelow.com.my>

First Ladies-<https://firstladies.si.edu/gallery>

Kehinde Wiley- <https://kehindewiley.com>

Self Portriats to Selfies-

<https://artsandculture.google.com/story/how-the-self-portrait-evolved-into-the-selfie/8gLCWiSlgsdBLg>